ST VINCENT DE PAUL REPORT
As we move into September, Vincentians in the Okanagan Valley are preparing to celebrate the feast day of St. Vincent de Paul on September the 26th. This year is a special year for Vincentians at St. Pius X because we will host the feast day celebrations at our church. On Saturday the 23rd of September Vincentians from the valley will come to St Pius X Church and celebrate mass together at 5:00 pm.

Other news ... Our Conference continues to use your generous donations to finance food hampers for those in need within the parish boundaries and at large in the Okanagan. We have sent a number of children to Camp Owaisi this summer, we have provided funds for families to enroll their children in recreational activities this fall, we supported the operating costs at Ozanam Recovery House and we have sent funds to our twin society in Haiti. In addition, we have been able to send funds to other Conferences that are feeling the impact of the wild fires in BC. Without your generosity, none of this would be possible.

THE COSTLY DUCK
A woman brought a very limp duck into a veterinary surgeon. As she laid her pet on the table, the vet pulled out his stethoscope and listened to the bird’s chest.
After a moment or two, the vet shook his head sadly and said, "I'm sorry, your duck Cuddles has passed away."
The distressed owner wailed, "Are you sure?" "Yes, I am sure. The duck is dead," he replied.
"How can you be sure," she protested. "I mean you haven't done any testing on him for anything. He might just be in a coma or something."
The vet rolled his eyes, turned around and left the room. He returned a few moments later with a black Labrador Retriever.
As the duck’s owner looked on in amazement, the dog stood on his hind legs, put his front paws on the examination table and sniffed the duck from top to bottom. He then looked at the vet with sad eyes and shook his head.
The vet patted the dog and took it out. He returned a few moments later with a cat. The cat jumped up on the table and also sniffed delicately at the bird from head to foot. The cat sat on its haunches, shook its head, meowed softly and strolled out of the room.
The vet looked at the women and said, "I'm sorry, but as I said, this is definitely, 100% certifiably a dead duck."
Then the vet turned to his computer terminal, hit a few keys and produced a bill, which he handed to the woman. The duck’s owner, still in shock, took the bill.
"$150!" she cried. "$150 just to tell me that my duck is dead?!
The vet shrugged. "I'm sorry. If you'd taken my word for it, the bill would have been $20, but with the Lab Report and the Cat Scan, it's now $150.00.
